

Colours

Words and Music by Gary Soloman and Tallulah Lacey

Free like a bird across the ocean
Your brush is colouring me
Got colours of a vision
Colours on TV
One race no colour division
Are the colours I can see

I don't want to change your mind
When a man sees his own design
I can't tell you that its always there
But goes on and on and on and on and on

Fortune favours the brave at heart
Full moon on a desert night
Flight on a golden wing
One world in a raindrop
Colours warm a broken heart
Voices singing in the wind

I don't want to change your mind
When a man sees his own design
I can't tell you that its always there
But goes on and on and on and on and on

Free like a bird across the ocean
Your brush is colouring me
Got colours of a vision
Colours on TV
One race no colour division
Are the colours I can see

I don't want to change your mind
When a man sees his own design
I can't tell you that its always there
But goes on and on and on and on and on