

Footsteps Across Our Heartland

Words & Music by Gary Soloman

Footsteps, across our heartland
Like memories, impressions in the sand
Well-trodden earth, another song, another birth
Mountains kiss the sky, like a lover's embrace
In her heart she rises up, to take its place

On breathless wing and timeless motion
Time passes a drop, in the ocean,
Mother takes her child, she holds it close
The bond forged with love, it will be the most
Two eagles circle above, to guide her love
Lookin' up to see how her child has grown
The seeds of knowledge now sewn

In a dream a song, in a song, a dream
