

Edge of the World

Words and Music by Gary Soloman

The ocean is calling and no-one is screaming
From the edge of the world you smile through your eyes
And I know there will be no lies with you

The ocean is screaming and no one is calling
From the edge of the world you smile through your eyes
And I know there will be no lies with you

Don't let it break you
Don't let take you sunshine

The ocean is calling and no-one is screaming
From the edge of the world you smile through your eyes
And I know there will be no lies with you

Don't let it break you
Don't let take you sunshine

Don't let it break you
Don't let take you sunshine
