

Never Been Gone

Words & Music by Gary Soloman

1992 When I first met you
Came into the world alone
Just Like you'd never been gone
And when I look into your eyes
I see the blue of your reflection
Your hearts pulling me in
It's giving me direction
No matter what the distance I've got no resistance to your love
No matter what the distance I've got no resistance to your love
And when I look into your eyes
I see the blue of your reflection
Your hearts pulling me in
It's giving me direction
Way oh Way Oh Wo Wo Wo
Way oh Way Oh Wo Wo Wo
It's the same horizon and a new beginning
It's the same horizon and a new beginning
And when I look into your eyes
I see the blue of your reflection
your hearts pulling me in
It's giving me direction
Way oh Way Oh Wo Wo Wo
Way oh Way Oh Wo Wo Wo
Oh Tallulah
Oh Tallulah
Oh Tallulah
Oh Tallulah
