

Mystery Train

Words and Music by Gary Soloman

I've been waiting for this moment to arrive
When I can see the light from your eyes
Love is a memory that I can afford
Love is a mystery train get on board
Like a breeze in the night
Blowing through my heart
Summer breeze make it right
Blow away the past

So many people lining up at the wall
Yesterday's memories lying on the floor
Love is a metaphor that's been before
Love is a mystery train get on board

Like a breeze in the night
Blowing through my heart
Summer breeze make it right
Blow away the past

So many feelings that I can't explain
My heart is burning up, like a flame
Yesterdays memories lying on the floor

Like a breeze in the night
Blowing through my heart
Summer breeze make it right
Blow away the past

Love is a mystery train get on board
Love is a mystery train get on board
Love is a mystery train get on board
Love is a mystery train get on board

Ooo, ooo, ooo,
